

Weymouth
Thursday morn -

Sept^r 13th

263

1877.

Dear Mr. Garrison,

We all
Most joyfully received your note this morning which gives us the hope of seeing you tomorrow.

We shall all be at home, & look forward to an account of your four day & social experiences

With

with the utmost satisfaction, — that I should have been so greatly promoted of your health above all, is a great blessing to us all.

Hoping to see you tomorrow,
I am dear
Mr. Garrison,
Your attached &
grateful friend
A. M. Chapman.

P.S. We shall expect you in the 11 o'clock train,
— May we not? — as soon as as long a visit as possible.

We should be delighted to see you Son Mr. Hank with you.

Q. 2. The estate of the late Wm. M. Lockman deceased, was sold by the court, and the proceeds were paid to the trustees of the University of the State of New York.

The trustee of the University of the State of New York
has been directed by the court to pay the proceeds of the sale
to the trustees of the University of the State of New York.

The trustee of the University of the State of New York
has been directed by the court to pay the
proceeds of the sale
to the trustees of the University of the State of New York.